HERE'S HOW TO PLAY

STEP 1: Press FIRE to leave the title screen.

STEP 2: Use the keypad to select which battle to fight. Press FIRE after reading the background information about the battle.

STEP 3: Once the battle begins you need to move UP and DOWN as fast as possible while shooting at the Horde ships.

STEP 4: If you become overwhelmed you can use one of your 3 nukes to clear the screen.

THE GAME SCREEN

The Horde, being a bio-mechanical entity, has developed a very linear attack strategy. Their mother ship in orbit projects a battlefield grid on the ground using powerful lasers that the Horde army follows. You can use this to your advantage!

LIVES: You start out with 5 lives and every 5,000 points you gain another life up to a maximum of 5 lives.

SCORE: This is your score. This will increase as you destroy the Horde ships.

BATTLE: This is the name of the battle you are fighting. The Horde uses different ships for each battle and you can use this to your advantage once you learn what ships they are.

LEVEL: This is the level you are on. After you have defeated a number of Horde ships this will increase. The color of the battlefield will also change with each level. As the level increase so does the difficulty as the Horde learns your tactics.

F-66 FIGHTER: This is your powerful fighter that you will use to destroy the horde.

NUKES: This shows how many nukes you have left. You get 3 with each ship so use them sparingly.

DEATH

Death: If you touch a Horde ship you will die. If you get hit by a pulse laser you will die. If you do not defeat the Horde mankind will die.

THE HORDE

The Horde attacked the Earth 40 years ago. After many battles over many years Mankind defeated them.

Now they are back.

They have upgraded their army to be more powerful and have changed their tactics. But, unknown to the Horde, a satellite in orbit was able to intercept their invasion plans so we know how they are going to attack!
